

Drive-In Session, Flagstaff

NASFAA U Credentialing Training: Administrative Capability

Friday, November 2, 2018 from 12:00 pm to 4:30 pm

Coconino Community College – Room 457

2800 S Lone Tree Rd., Flagstaff, AZ 86005

Agenda:

Introduction of Material and Trainers

Lesson 1: Introduction to Administrative Capability

Lesson 2: Adequate Resources, Separation of Functions, and Information Sharing

Lesson 3: Electronic Processes, Recordkeeping, and Contingency Planning

Lesson 4: Other Administrative Capability Requirements

All paid attendees will receive the NASFAA U Self-Study Guide and the NASFAA U authorization code to take the Administrative Capability credentialing exam after attending the session in-person.

AASFAA is not authorized to provide the training online or to provide the credentialing code if the attendee does not attend the training in-person.

Questions? Site Coordinator: Lisa Hill lisa.hill@coconino.edu
AASFAA Training Committee Chairs: Maggie Thom maggie.thom@nau.edu & Aurie Clifford aclifford@pima.edu